

Ketevan Eremadze

Place of Birth: Tbilisi, Georgia;

Education:

- 1998-1993 Tbilisi State University. Faculty of Law;
- 2000-2003 Tbilisi State University. Faculty of Law. Post-graduate Studies. Direction of Constitutional Law;
- 2003 Candidate of Legal Sciences /Doctor of Law.
Dissertation: “Problems of Inter-Relationship between Legislative and Executive Powers in Georgia” ;
- 2006-2007 Austrian Academic Exchange Scholarship. Vienna University, Institute of Constitutional and Administrative Law , Post-Graduate Studies.

Work Experience:

- 1998-1999 Constitutional Court of Georgia. Leading Specialist;
- 1999-2001 Adviser to the Chairman of the Constitutional Court of Georgia;
- 2001-2005 Assistant to the Chairman of the Constitutional Court of Georgia;
- 2005-2006 Head of Staff of the Constitutional Court of Georgia;
- 2006-2016 Member of the Constitutional Court of Georgia (Judge);
Secretary of the Constitutional Court of Georgia.
- 2018 Appointed by the President of Georgia as the chairman of the commission of the National Award of Georgia.

Teaching/Training Experience

2010-2011	Invited lecturer of Free University;
2005-2014	Tbilisi State University. Faculty of Law. Invited Lecturer;
2014- 2017	Tbilisi State University. Faculty of Law. Associate Professor;
2017-2018	Invited Professor at Ilia State University
2018 – present	Professor at Ilia State University.

Ketevan Eremadze is the author of five books and 15 articles as well as coursebooks in Constitutional law and scientific editor of 5 books.

Spheres of scientific interest/research interests:

Constitutional law, human rights law, key constitutional values;